Festival Greetings

A warm Lismore welcome to all our competitors, teachers, adjudicators and patrons, to our 106th Festival/Eisteddfod. This year celebrates our 110th birthday.

Our Competitions began when Lismore was a busy town on the edge of a new frontier. Today's busy city is in a world of instant satellite communications; throughout these five generations the Performing Arts have continued to entertain and inspire us to learn of more of the wonders of Music, Dance and the Spoken Word.

Our Annual Eisteddfod has been the starting point for many people, who have developed successful careers in their chosen field. We feel sure that all performers will remember and have gained from their experiences.

We are pleased to announce that this year, three new Dance sections have been added to our program and these are Lyrical, Contemporary and Tap Dance with Vocals.

Sincere thanks to all our sponsors, The Lismore City Council, Lismore Workers Club, NORPA, Lismore CWA, Lismore Trophies, Wilson Park School and all who have donated trophies, prizes, monetary support, and our priceless volunteers without whose help we could not survive.

We trust that this year's competitions will be conducted in the usual spirit of good fellowship and sportsmanship and hope that you will all enjoy and benefit from the experience.

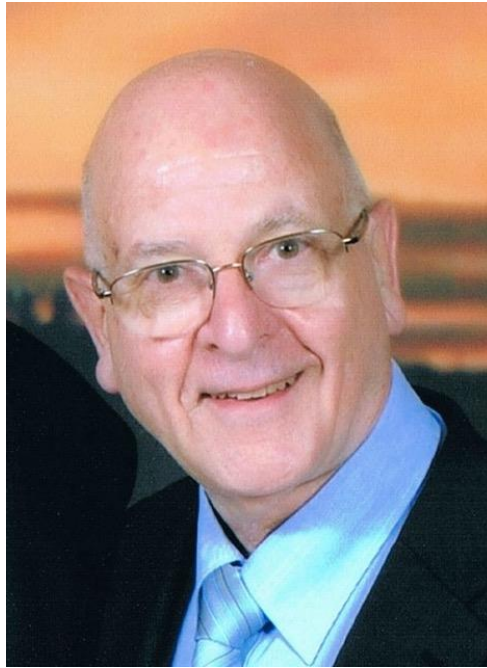

We wish you all a successful and rewarding 106th Festival.

RICHARD MORPHEW

Richard is a highly respected examiner, adjudicator, author, music educator and performer. He studied at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music with the legendary Alexander Sverjensky for piano and with the equally legendary Elizabeth Todd for singing, and Errol Collins for violin. He taught music in several NSW secondary schools before traveling to USA and England to further his musical studies. He returned to Australia to take up a position as lecturer in music and music education at Alexander Mackie Teachers' College and later at Sydney College of Advanced Education and University of New South Wales as well as part time lecturer at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

For over forty years Richard has taught singing and piano and has performed in both these disciplines on national radio and television. He conducts piano, vocal and choral workshops throughout Victoria, Queensland and New South Wales. Richard is respected internationally in the field of vocal and instrumental pedagogy, and has presented papers relating to his research at international conferences in England and America. He has been a guest lecturer at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London and the Longy School of Music in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Richard is a senior examiner of piano and singing with AMEB (NSW) and is an Honorary Life Member of the Music Teachers' Association of NSW.

Welcome Richard to our 106th Lismore Festival Eisteddfod.

Perpetual Trophies

In keeping with the practice of other Eisteddfodau, Challenges and similar Performing Arts Competitions, from 2006 this Society has adopted the following policy.

Perpetual trophies will be awarded but the Society will retain them to place on permanent display at the Lismore City Library.

All trophies will be engraved by the Society with the year and name(s) of the winners.

At the Presentation of Awards ceremony, where the donor of the Perpetual Award does not supply a replica trophy, the winner will receive a descriptive certificate.

A photographic record of the winner with the trophy can be arranged on application.

THANK YOU

Eisteddfod participation provides excellent learning opportunities. Skilled adjudicators reinforce the sound training given to students by their gifted teachers. The patient perseverance of our competitors grooms them in their pursuit of excellence in performance.

The poise, self-assurance, team work and self-confidence learned will certainly prepare them for future careers, possibly as professional teachers or performers, or in quite different careers, but they would have all benefited in some way through their participation.

We need your generous financial support to be able to continue to provide this educational service to enrich our culture, our community and the lives and futures of our young performers.

The Lismore Musical Festival Society is an independent community organization and it is registered with the Australian Charities and not for profit Commission. Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible. Your donation will ensure that we remain financially able to continue to present the City of Lismore Eisteddfod.
